Dear Admiral Turner:

I am writing to you in connection with the candidacy of [ ] for a term membership on the Council on Foreign Relations.

STAT

I am myself a term member of the Council and have suggested [ ] election in response to a letter I received from [ ] chairman of the Council's Term Membership Committee. A copy of my letter to [ ] is attached for your reference.

[ ] has indicated that you might be willing to respond to any inquiry concerning his qualifications and character which [ ] might raise. I would hope to have your permission, therefore, to mention your name in a separate letter which I propose to write to [ ] after hearing from you. I have also asked [ ] to write you a short follow-up note, in the event that you wish to communicate with him directly on his candidacy.
